Where do you start?

When you start looking at using a consultancy company it can seem a very daunting prospect fraught with problems and difficulties. Trying to find a consultancy company that you feel understands your needs and is prepared to listen to your requirements can be frustrating and time consuming.

Teamwork International's track record is second to none. We pride ourselves in taking the time to listen to our clients' requirements so that we can design training solutions that fulfil those needs and conduct consultancy activities that add value for our busy customers.

Teamwork International has developed long term relationships with clients who require specific solutions to answer specific problems. Although Teamwork International have a number of standard training modules, we are prepared to adapt existing training material and/or develop new training material, tailored to meet your defined needs.

Our reputation is built on commitment to customer satisfaction and technical excellence.

When Time is MONEY, we SAVE you BOTH.

Mission Statement

"To deliver high quality cost-effective training programmes in a professional and reliable manner."

"To take the time and effort to understand the needs of our clients so that we can satisfy their requirements."

"To develop long-term lasting relationships with our clients."

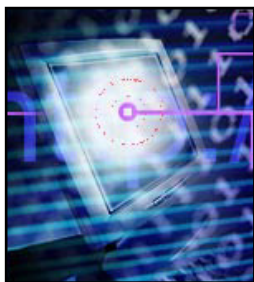

Human Resources

Teamwork International was established in 1987 and is a privately funded company with access to a number of multi-talented consultants and associates who have worked in various sectors of industry and commerce in their field of expertise.
